

3rd Australian Disorders of Sex Development Symposium

12:00-5:30pm Sunday 1 August 2010

APEG Annual Scientific Meeting
Intercontinental Hotel, Adelaide

To all APEG ASM participants:

You are invited to attend the 3rd Australian Disorders of Sex Development Symposium, which will be held as a satellite meeting of the APEG ASM.

The Symposium will provide a scientific update from the NHMRC Program in Human Sex Development, and discuss:

- a proposal for an Asia Pacific Disorders of Sex Development consortium;
- quality of life issues, with Professor Hertha Richter-Appelt (Medical Faculty of the Hamburg University, Germany); and
- the International Consensus Guidelines, with Professor Garry Warne (Royal Childrens Hospital), Dr Reiko Horikawa (National Centre for Child Health and Development, Japan), and Dr Vu Chi Dung (National Hospital of Paediatrics, Vietnam).

The Symposium will conclude with a meeting of the APEG DSD working group. A full agenda is attached.

Please RSVP for catering purposes on your APEG registration or email nicole.woods@mcri.edu.au directly.

We look forward to seeing you at the Symposium.
